1995/1996 GUIDE

Ansett has more flights.
So you can get home sooner.

Ansett has more flights to more destinations in Australia than any other airline.
Because we know that some meetings are just too important to miss.

Chairman's Welcome

Welcome to the Ericsson Cup, Soccer Australia's new national competition. The Ericsson Cup will provide Australia with the highest quality national competition. What the Ericsson Cup represents is the showcase of the best of Australian soccer.

We are extremely pleased to see this year's competition about to commence with a number of improvements. Firstly, the name and format has changed. The Ericsson Cup is now a 12 team competition played in three rounds followed by a Finals series. We also welcome teams from Newcastle and Canberra into the national competition thereby taking soccer at its highest club level to two of Australia's largest non State Capital cities. Additionally, we are pleased to welcome a new naming rights sponsor – Ericsson Australia, who will be our national league partner for five years initially and many more to come after that hopefully. One other major change is the introduction of Optus Vision as the soccer cable-television network who, along with S.B.S. Television will now bring soccer into more homes than ever before with a far greater selection of matches for viewers to see.

We are also pleased to welcome back Optus Communications together with our new airline sponsor Ansett Australia. Additionally, we are grateful for the ongoing sponsorship from Coca-Cola Amatil, Mitre Sports and United Distillers. All in all, an exciting time for Australian Soccer.
